Bass Fishing If I could add to what Ive heard about rivers, or creek fishing theres a type of fish that also doesnt like being pushed out of the water by weight... Same concept as stripers being pushed out of the water by a troll, or bass by a led. Thoughts? That way, I could use one popper rig with at least a 6 foot leader for bass and at least a 12 foot leader for interesting. There is some fun and detailed information about the upcoming "re-boot" of a certain cult movie franchise on the IMDB page, if you didn't know already.

There's also some very slightly incorrect info at the bottom of the page that's been brought to our attention. The webpage is for "Alien: Resurrection", which is a 1997 movie that will be re-released in 1998. The 1998 movie was to be called "Alien: Resurrection", but was changed to the "pseudo-sequel" "Alien 3" due to the controversy surrounding the original title of "Alien" (it's rights weren't cleared until later that year, meaning that no script could be written until then). So, technically, "Alien: Resurrection" is a sequel to "Alien" and "Alien 3" is a prequel (although it takes place years after the events of the original). Those who saw "Alien:
